ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC Aug. 11, 1882^{SW.}

Dear Madame Goldschmidt,

It is my pleasing duty to write to you by personal desire of the Prince of Wales, to express his hope that you will consent to take the head of the Department for teaching female singers in the Royal College of Music.

His Royal Highness has reason to believe that you do not disapprove of the effort which he is making to benefit English music. He feels that he will have done all in his power to ensure its success in this particular department if he can induce you to take charge of it and he desires me further to say that it will give him peculiar pleasure if you will do so.

It is hoped to open the College early in the new year.

Any further particulars that I can give you shall be most happy to give either by letter or word of mouth.

I am,

Dear Mad'm. Goldschmidt

Yours very truly

F. Horne.
