Dear Mr. Goldschmidt

Thank you very much for your kind note of invitation for the evening dinner on Friday

I suppose in the circumstances I ought to say 'no.' but having regard to your kindness in asking me I feel that I cannot do so as shall have a great pleasure in assisting as a guest, as I should have had, or a host, if times had not been so bad

With many thanks
Yours very truly
Lewis Morris
