

London No 91 Gt Portland St.
Lind Golds.
5. Dec^r 1857.

Dear Sir,

When we arrived in London for the winter I saw M^r. Mitchell from whom I learned that it is still your wish to reside in England; I presume he mentioned to you the house of M^r. Martineau on Weybridge Common, which I have been to see; probably, it would suit you; the Grounds require laying out, but in other respects it could soon be ready for the reception of a family: There is however a charming House,

Answered on the 18th of July 1858 / house too expensive called "Byfleet Lodge", 2 Miles from Weybridge, belonging to M^r. Back which I think is perfect in every respect— I enclose the particulars (which you need not return) when you come to England and if then inclined to view this house, I shall be happy to introduce you to M^r. Back, whom you would find a very straight forward person to deal with, and one whom you might thoroughly trust—The amount he asks does not include furniture, but that is most elegant and suitable, and probably might be had at a valuation.

Lady Smart unites with me in kind regards to Mad.^{re} Goldschmidt and yourself, and hoping, that you and your children are well, and that we may soon have the pleasure of seeing you in London.
Believe me to be,

Yours very faithfully,
George, J. Smart.

To Herr. Otto Goldschmidt.
