

hind - Goldschmidt
sawed,

Wynd's Point,
Colwall,
Malvern.

July 24th

Dear Mr. Deacon,
Many thanks for your kind letter.
I am indeed glad
that Mr. Deacon

did not mention
on the tedious
drive to Hurdon Fordes!

I am trying to hear she is not better - and that you still have

that cough -
yet - we have had a fine
summer in London thus far.

I am grateful to be here - for the London heat

recently asked me.
I hope Russell,
Stewart and Albany
will say: "Lift thine eyes in Time - I got them in almost perfect time before I left, but dare say,
they will fall back
when bad habits!"

With kindest regards to W. T. Deason! believe me yours truly
J. L. Goldschmidt