Dear Mr. Allmand

I just this minute
 got your letter and
scrape on business
 which - I hope
 won't take so long
 to reach you as

Yours of 9.50 this morning. 'Well - ^{we} ~~are~~ ^{are} "behind the mountains", as the Swedes say.

What short time
you find me for stuffing the duck!
Sunday tomorrow
no duck except my own beloved self

in the house!

Well - is ^{mon} Monday ful - so come and
welcome - if bad
do not come for you won't be "welcome"
Come then Tuesday
which must be ^{fine} ful - Wednesday

I go on a little visit to the Peels / Holmes Link / probably til

Saturday. — vaila

Runners are running very!

Post office Malabar.

If Monday is fine I shall expect you
and drive you up to the Cottage

^{Saturday II}
which I can only
show you the situation of and the force - for I have nothing by.

Your old friend

had a splendid survey of the proposed purchase. Dr C. is still busy poking out a little
