Dear Mr. Statham

I have idly - to invite me, old lag
unfit for tea drinking & come to Worcester
and I wish you.
I am afraid

You must ^{not} not expect me. ^{which} perhaps you would often this I now -
storm of to-day.

If I could only hear that ~~the~~ ^{the} Cottage was mine - I wd
at once go on to Worcester for the purpose of looking

up old furniture, and would announce myself at 14. By thing / what a noise! / for some water and milk - but -- one afraid such good luck with what happens, one just - now - you will have left your
By thing when I come to it.

Well - I wish you would come over
D
He

me at some fine / Day a Sunday? - and I would bring you to our bit of a ~~madness~~ of a ^{astery} Monastery near little Malvera, where M^r Peel preaches; but if I find you ^{"mutton"} you fit sheepish; if I find you ~~even~~ meat-you might get ox - / a ^{word} word of my own! - if fowl, you will get chickenhearted

The

Two best with be to try to get an "old duck". In that is more like ^{yourself} young.

You were an old duck to come and see us, and share
our sheepy meal
as you did.

Your old friend
