Dear Mr. Huntington

Miss Mary has

sent me tickets

for her Recital

I ought to say with you honest

thanks / which I do

and I will try

* So these are you ask me, although it is a hard thing for me to sit — and hear
long concertos —
as I get so tired,
having had a
life one full of Music!

However I will put on a smiling
face, and probably get rewarded
by Miss Kings' play.
I hope things
look a little more cheerful with you now, and that
D. Huntingford

Can look with me.
when upon his my first loss. although this place in his heart must necessary
remain for ever vacant
while kind offices
him and for his daughter,
believe me
Yours sincerely
James L. Goldsmid.
