Lind-Golds.

Friday.

Dear Mr Hemingford
I should be very happy to attend any entertainment — I had just — thought —

Mrs Lydia C. Huntington

Eagle House

how to keep our home in the evening. as I cannot read
nor [illegible] much
the evening
being occupied;
but if any matters here in
this fine weather,

and you come & stay one a
nice long little visit. You will find tea at half past 4. and supper at 6 (if you can)
you might bring Lucy
home. although

if will be exciting
times we must to be happy. Annie will find Annie Hubbard and Lilly
here time.

I have not seen
you for so long,
dear Mr Thornton, and so I trust nothing
will prevent you to come here as commanded
you will always find
the same welcome.

Yours affectionately
Jenny L. Sol Schmidt
