

Abb Sea.

Friday.

[Oct. 25 1867]

Dear Catherine
I got your note
this morning.
I am glad the box
is all safe. I had since Eliza's instructions about it before
I left for Suffolk
as I thought it would

Dear Miss Shrewsbury

My Catherine Kirkwood

31. Cornwallis Crescent

Clifton. near
Bristol.

be just about the
time you wanted
it. — I am sorry
about your cold —
you would have had no cold if
you had remained
longer at Bob's Sea!
I think with just
touch on your visit
a treasure more
in the heart & treasure
you have become
to me!

I trust you will soon
be better —

Thank of kind Mr. Pick sending me £50. for
my poor success!

I found my family
happy on my return
He has a postponed
decommission. but
is much better
to-day, though not quite well. I stay
well in a few days
it is so unusual to
have him in bed. —

Wrote about the
Dean — he is now
on the Continent.

going towards the South of France.
 my friend - a bad
 cold caught at Paris.
 Lady Augusta is
 anxious that no
 communication
 should be sent
 to him - so his
 recovery is not known - it would
 I fear put our
 very happy -
 for he seems perfectly
 restored with

Dear Miss Anne

let us welcome
he goes - so they have peace -
now here. —

The Duke returns
to Westminster
on the 18th of November -
and remains
there at the
Abby. —

These informations I have from

from the Duke's return to Westminster on the 18th of November - and remains
there at the Abby. —

Ring, who
knows all
about them
and she come
to us yesterday
and today I
asked her for
the memories with
us some time, by
it speaks, her
voice - in "this
fine chime."
about all you wanted

I know and you can be free to use that and the memories and the