I thank you dear Athenae for your kind
letter - I well
know that you
were busy at your sister Anne - & I was expected gone to Mother

but it was a relief to know you
safely again in your own home
in these times
of dangerous
vilemug accidents
W<sup>t</sup> told me
some howe
yesterday -
looking magnell

and pleased with his visit & his own country. He advices the serious
behavior toward the French prisoners
and says that the officers have been moral in Germany. Good
they treated, and need for.

Poor W. H. Coffey
in with his articles on Germany.

and attains a deal
of popularity.
W. J. Schmid says
that they feel confident that they shall have to return
the whole sum
in France.

We are all quite well etc. Harry is unwell. I have taken an elderly French
maid - a widow, a Protestant, who seems a very pleasant person.
God bless you -
dearest Catherine,
my love from
your affectionate
son, Wm. J. Schmid
