13.

Lind-Gods -

Oak Lea
Wimbledon Park
S.W

Tuesday,
3. Dec.
1872

Dearest Catherine Find there I thank you for your kind letter of the 1st inst.
and for your kind wish to hear from me! I feel deeply how little I deserve your dear letters -

13.

Mme. Goldschmidt
3/12/72
to Miss Catherine Winkworth

---

31 Cornwallis Crescent
Clifton
Bristol

yet I always feel, too, that I can more closely unite you, but seldom you can only receive my fine words! —
I was long indeed not to see you when you came through London — but really
I have been so taken up by writing W. Feldschmidt that

I have seen but little of my friends he cannot get rid of his boils - he went to Sir Henry Ormsby's last Friday - and there he came back yesterday evening with a tremendous boil on the one leg - and is in bed with poultices - he does not suffer though, as he did when we were at Brighton. and I hope he will soon be quite well, & able to walk better than he was some weeks ago. his Doctor at Newcastle says it is supposed gout. I am so much stronger and better in health than I have been these 20 years - that I am not the same person. I had a mistake in July for the stomach / which nearly killed me and ruined took 2. months to recover from — but so that time, at least ten feet 2 weeks more than happiest I ever spent — to feel from one end to the other of a country not being in a position I can only think back on that time with gratitude — the worse was over the disappointment of not being allowed to see when it seemed so easy to go, - and to have to begin this struggling life again.

Fanny is quite happy at Dunedin - I am deeply grateful for having her there. Fel. Potter is a superior lady - and I feel convinced that it can be an unbounded blessing to Fanny - and I trust it is that the love

between her and me with, since out, of the this generation, in its fullest-bloom!
and that is worth something. Next I go down on a reed bays, and see all these thousand & bayou negroes spread on Acres of Ground for the first time with W.P. Fredericks relations - many of whom are very good and nice. I imposed this trip for several reasons, first & chief

up my husband who has had a sore disappointment & must start again at the Chests Hall - and was like myself, cast down.
2ly I could not be away from home and brother many Sundays - 3ly the weeks holidays,
In the is how much are Fd. Better wait
ihr nun eine Woche [illegible]. again - I would not have Sunny home, to be unsettled again. She was beloved both and trusted throughout Wales is at ~~Christ~~ ~~Church~~ Coll (Corpus Christi) Coll.

Edgeworth and seems to delight in his College and thinks it the best of Oxford. If he can will undertand —
I could not say.
Ernest is at Port —

dr.

Then in
Mr. Waterfield's my superior School.
and does and is such a thorough child yet and certainly no just-School-boy! but a truest innocent mind. Then
dear friend — I shall think about about me and mine yet & sometimes Tell you that we have bought a small house in London - Peterborough Terrace

by Cornwall Gardens near Abbots Hall and Kensington - where we hope to be able to see something more of our friends. Ask Ida to write us word - we go to London there in Spring - and hope to call before - which I trust may not be too difficult.
I am sorry that you

home to undergo the penalty of changing your home.' - and then I don't think life will be so unpleasant to you to write a description of the Democratic office yet - you are clever - clever and wanly
in your sufferings.
There is nothing of petite femme in you - and so you will do with truthfulness what my Nonna in Lord would do with a self glorification.
Dearest Catherine -
Good bye! don't forget me - I shall always remain yours lovingly
Jenny L. Goldschmidt.