Inledning

Anders Boustedt föddes på nyårsafton 1942 i Stockholm och växte upp i Äppelviken i Bromma. Det första mötet med jazzmusiken var i hemmet där det spelades musik på skiva med Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Jimmie Lunceford m.fl. En stark upplevelse var också att som 11 åring tillsammans med en jämnårig kamrat åka in till Stockholms konserthus och höra Count Basies orkester. Under tonåren fanns musiken hela tiden närvarande, och intresset för jazzen närdes också genom hans 4 år äldre bror skådespelaren och musikern Christer Boustedt (1939-1986). Christer som för en bredare publik blev känd genom sin medverkan i Teatergruppen Oktober och filmen ”Sven Klangs kvintett”.

Med sin Tandberg-bandspelare började Anders 1960 att spela in konserter och evenemang med jazzmusik som sändes i radio. Senare har han också under 1980-talet medverkat vid inspelningar gjorda på bl.a. jazzklubben Fashing i Stockholm. Dessa inspelningar tillsammans med inspelningar som kommer från brodern Christer ligger också till grund för detta arkiv.

I sitt yrkesverksamma liv har Anders arbetat som ljudtekniker på Sveriges Radio där han också gjort många egna radioprogram såsom Jazzkammaren, Jazzskivan, Blues Ballad and Bebop, Jazz i fokus m.m.

Huvuddelen av arkivet består av jazz från 1960-talet och framåt med svenska musiker och grupper som Bernt Rosengren, Börje Fredriksson, Lasse Werner, Staffan Abeleens kvintett, Christer Boustedt, Eje Thelin m.fl.

Arkivet inkom till Svenskt visarkiv i omgångar under hösten 2014, där det är fritt tillgängligt för forskning.
