Handwritten musical notation, first system. It consists of three staves: a single treble clef staff at the top, and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) below. The music is in a common time signature (C) and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The notation includes various note values, rests, and some dynamic markings.

Handwritten musical notation, second system. It consists of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The notation is dense with notes and includes some corrections and scribbles. There are some handwritten annotations in pencil, including a circled area and some markings that look like "mf" and "p".

Handwritten musical notation, third system. It consists of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The notation is very dense and includes many corrections, scribbles, and annotations. There are several "mf" markings and some other handwritten notes in pencil.

Handwritten musical notation, fourth system. It consists of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The notation is dense and includes many corrections and scribbles. There are several "p" markings and some other handwritten notes in pencil. A large circle is drawn around the right side of the system.
